

Media Consent Form

This consent form is for 'sailor' clients, their relatives, carers and support workers who sail with or participate with us at Sailability Mackay.

The Privacy Act 1988 imposes obligations on organisations to protect personal information they collect. Images of individuals in photographs or on film are treated as personal information under the Act if the individual's identity is clear, or can reasonably be worked out from an image.

Photos or video footage of you may be used by us on Facebook, our website and in our newsletters. We do this to promote the Sailability experience.

We can't use your images unless we have your consent or the consent of a 'responsible' person acting on your behalf¹. This consent, once given, will be amended or revoked only upon receipt of written advice from the person who gave it to us².

- We will not pay anyone for giving this consent for our use
- We may keep the images on record or use them, unless you revoke your consent
- If you revoke your consent, we will destroy any unpublished images
- Unless you specify limits on the use of images, we may use them in the future
- We will not pass the images on to any other party without your consent
